

Thursday November 15. 1660.

Resolved and Declared by the Commons Assembled in Parliament, that the privilege of this house, in point of protection from Arrests, doth belong to the Members of this house, and their Menial servants only, and to the Officers attending the service of this house; And that all protections in Writing, granted by any Member of this house, to any Person whatsoever, be forthwith called in, and are hereby Declared to be Null and Void. And all persons whom this may concern, are required, upon all occasions, to take notice of the privilege belonging to the Members of this house, and their Menial servants, and to the Officers attending the service of this house, at their perill.

R Esolved, That this Order be forthwith Printed and Published.

W. JESSOP, Clerk of the Commons House of Parliament.
